FOREWORD

One of the major objectives of the Indian Council of Social Science Research is to create the necessary infra-structure to facilitate social science research and secure improvement in its quality. For this purpose, the Council has established the Social Science Documentation Centre at Delhi, which soon after its inception, undertook to compile a Union Catalogue of Social Science Serials in the important libraries in India. The project, which was started in 1970, envisaged its implementation in concurrent phases so as to make the whole effort quickly, widely and increasingly useful to the social scientists as well as to the social science librarians in the country. Accordingly, a series of publications have been brought out so far. They include the Union Lists of Social Science Periodicals currently received in the libraries at Delhi, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh and Bombay. Subsequently the Union Catalogue of Social Science Periodicals providing a record of holdings of social science periodical titles in the selected libraries in Delhi, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana & Himachal Pradesh, Kerala, West Bengal, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra have already been published in the series called Union Catalogue Series (P). More volumes in this series covering the libraries in the remaining States are under preparation.

Union Catalogue Series (S) is a separate series intended to cover social science serials other than the periodicals included in the Union Catalogue Series (P). The first Volume in the Series (S) called Union Catalogue of Social Science Serials : Delhi has already been published in three parts. The first part includes serial publication of the Government of India, the Princely States, and their Agencies. The second part includes publications issued by the States including Erstwhile Provinces, Presidencies etc., Union Territories, Local Bodies, Universities, Commercial Bodies and other Non-Official Organisations of India. The third part includes serial publications issued by Foreign Official and Non-Official Agencies as well as those by International Organisations. The other Volumes already published in the Union Catalogue Series (S) are Madhya Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh and Kerala.

The present publication is seventh in the Union Catalogue Series (S). It includes 2993 serial publications available in 29 libraries in the State of West Bengal.

The Indian Council of Social Science Research wishes to acknowledge gratefully the cooperation extended by many librarians and libraries in India in this project. The Council hopes that the volumes in this series will be of help to the users to locate their social science serial requirements.

The Council will welcome suggestions and comments to improve the utility of other volumes in the series.

INTRODUCTION

Union Catalogue of Social Science Serials is the first project of the Social Science Documentation Centre which was started in 1970, almost with the establishment of the Centre. The beginning of the project was made by compiling the Union Lists of Social Science Periodicals currently received in the selected libraries of the metropolitan cities of Delhi and Bombay and the states of Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka. These four Union Lists were published during 1971 and 1972.

The project was then planned for publication in two series, namely the Union Catalogue Series (P) and Union Catalogue Series (S). The first series covers the Social Science Periodicals with their holdings in selected libraries. Until now, volumes covering libraries in Delhi, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana & Himachal Pradesh, Kerala, West Bengal, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra have been published in this series. Volumes pertaining to other States are under preparation, i.e., either under compilation or under printing. The second series would cover Social Science Serials excluding periodicals covered in the first series. This plan of two series is intended to provide for quick compilation and publication of reference tools which would be largely and frequently used by the social science researchers. It also ensures that an important category of social science research literature, namely non-periodical serials of which large collections are available in many libraries are brought under bibliographical control and access to them is made easy. The word 'Serials' attracts the notion of periodicity whether regular or irregular. But serials mostly include annual reports of Government and other corporate bodies, gazettes, debates of legislative bodies, proceedings and transactions of conferences etc. These and similar publications often include topics which may not be strictly of implication to social science research. It has therefore been decided to collect and present holdings data in respect of serial titles reasonably covering the following subject areas :

Anthropology

Commerce

Demography

Economics

Education

Geography

History

International Affairs

Journalism

Law

Library Science (Including Documentation, Automation and Reprography)

Linguistics

Management

Political Science

Psychology

Public Administration

Social Work

Sociology

Statistics

Town and Country Planning

The Union Catalogue is primarily to locate the availability of the required volume. The purpose is adequately fulfilled if the title is known to be available in a reasonable number of libraries to which the user has easy access. This main purpose of the Union Catalogue has all along been kept in view. The Union Catalogue is not an inventory or a stocklist of holdings of serial publications. If the coverage of certain libraries, therefore, appears incomplete as to the number of separate serial titles in a particular subject area, it is in no sense a reflection on the libraries' holdings.

The Union Catalogue is intended to help the scholars and the librarians to obtain on loan the required volume of the serial publication or to visit the library to consult it in its premises. It may also help the librarians to make a cooperative effort to reduce to the minimum the duplication of certain holdings, fill gaps in holdings by mutual exchange and utilize the funds saved in this manner to ensure the availability of larger number of serial titles in a neighbourhood, a city or a state as may be feasible.

The serial publications are enormous in number. More serials are published every year. Almost every organised and continuous human activity results in an annual report and thereby adds to the number of existing serials. Any periodic get-together of professional people in conferences, seminars, workshops produces one more serial. Activities of Governments at all levels have increased so rapidly in recent times everywhere that it is safe to say that the Government in any country is about the largest publishing agency of serials in that country. The number of Government agencies has also been proliferating. The accumulation of serials even on a selective basis in libraries over a period of years has, therefore, assumed a large proportion. Delhi being the Capital has a larger number of libraries having sizeable collections of serials.

In view of these circumstances, particularly in Delhi, it was decided that the volume of the Union Catalogue of Social Science Serials in the libraries in Delhi should be prepared and published in three separate parts. All the three parts have now been published. The first part includes serial publications of the Government of India, the Princely States and their Agencies. The second part includes publications issued by the States including Erstwhile Provinces, Presidencies etc., Union Territories, Local Bodies, Universities, Commercial Bodies and other Non-Official Organisations in India. The third part includes serial publications issued by foreign Official and Non-Official Agencies as well as those by International Organisations.

The present volume which is the seventh to be published in the Union Catalogue Series (S) records the availability in 1974-75, of 2993 social science serial titles in 29 libraries in the state of West Bengal. No precise definition of the term 'Serial' is assumed. By and large, however, annual and irregular publications of serial nature are included. Excluded are several publications with definite periodicity and which are generally understood to be periodicals. A companion volume covering periodicals other than serials has already been published in 1975. Some overlapping is obviously unavoidable and examples may be detected in this as well as in the companion volume.

The compilation of the present volume has been possible because of the cooperation extended by the Bengal Library Association. Social Science Documentation Centre requested the Association to assist in collecting the holdings record of social science Serials from the important libraries in West Bengal which were known to have large and significant collections of social science serials. The Executive Committee of the Association readily accepted our request and nominated one of the members of the Committee, Shri B.P. Mookerjee to act as the Project Director. Shri Mookerjee was assisted by Smt. Gayatri Banerjee, Shri Aloke Chakraborty and Shri Partha Sarthi Chatterjee in collecting the data from the libraries which were selected by Shri Mookerjee.

On the advice of the Association, it was decided to exclude the National Library, Calcutta from the scope of this volume. It was felt that an independent volume comprising an authentic and comprehensive record of the holdings of Social Science Periodicals and all other Serials available in the National Library would be a very useful reference volume not only for the social scientists and research workers in India but also in other countries particularly those in South and South-East Asia. The Association has generously agreed to assist in compiling this volume which is expected to be published shortly. We are very grateful to the Association for all this cooperation.

Detailed instructions were given for preparing the record on each card and a token remuneration was also provided as an incentive for cooperation. All the libraries provided full facilities to Shri Mookerjee, Project Director and his assistants and we are grateful to them.

The Union Catalogue is at best a kind of image of the holdings of the libraries during the period of data collection. Changes sometimes occur too often but too late to be incorporated, howsoever one may wish to do so. Serial collections also change in size and character by withdrawals, loss and discontinuance as well as by addition of more titles and back sets. For these reasons, the Union Catalogue, no matter how accurately compiled at one time is likely to mislead occasionally in respect of certain titles. It may, therefore, be advisable to contact the library in advance and verify the actual availability of the serial title required before visiting the library or sending a request for loan. To facilitate such advance contacts, addresses with telephone numbers of all the libraries are provided. Local users of the Union Catalogue may find this information more useful.

The editing of the records furnished by libraries as well as those compiled by our staff has been no less arduous. A wide variety of reference works have been scanned to verify as meticulously as possible the accuracy and dependability of what was finally to be entered in respect of each title. Even so, some titles have defied the patience and the perseverance of our staff and have deserved an asterisk mark(*) behind each of them indicating that these have not been identified in any of the available reference tools. That their number is not too large is our only consolation. Cross references have been provided to help identification of the title quickly. Such cross references number 713 i.e. about 23% of the total entries.

The editing of this volume has been assisted by almost all the staff of the Union Catalogue Project at different stages. However, special mention needs to be made of the contribution of Mr. Manohar Lal, Mr. Kamal Jit Kumar, Mr. Mam Chand, Mr. Kumar Pal, Miss Neelam Hans and Mrs. Indira Sharma. The Press Copy was typed by Mr. D. K. Adya, Mr. Mohan Panwar, Mrs. Neena Soni, Miss Raj Sharma, Miss Usha Rani and Miss Shashi Sharma. The Proof-reading was done by Mr. Daljit Singh, Miss Neelam Makin, Miss Maya Kar, Miss Poonam Khanna Mr. Naresh Kumar and Mr. Vijay Kumar Sharma.

Shri Surendra Prasad Agrawal, Deputy Director, provided overall supervision.

Shri Rakesh Bagai of Rakesh Press, New Delhi and Shri Gian Chand of Rama Book Binding House, Delhi extended full cooperation enabling us to publish this volume according to the schedule.

The Indian Council of Social Science Research and in particular the staff of the Union Catalogue Project desire to record their great appreciation for the assistance given by Shri B. P. Mookerjee in collecting the data for this volume. Our thanks are also due to Smt. G. Banerjee, Shri A. Chakraborty, Shri P. Chatterjee and the librarians and the staff of the participating libraries in the state of West Bengal. We shall need their cooperation in future also.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Entry

1. All serial publications have been mostly entered under the sponsor excluding those sponsored by commercial publishing bodies.

2. Corporate Bodies viz Societies, Institutions, Organisations, Companies etc. have been entered under their respective names followed by the place unless the place name forms a part of the body.

3. Conferences, Meetings and Seminars, if they possess distinguished titles, have been entered under their respective names followed by their sponsoring body wherever available. Cross Reference from the sponsoring body to the Seminar, Conference etc. has been given wherever found to be useful.

4. Where the sponsor and/or title is in English language and also in other foreign languages, preference is given to English language for entry purposes. Necessary cross-references have been given to facilitate identification of the required publication.

5. Titles which begin with abbreviations or acronyms are entered under the abbreviations or acronyms.

6. Sub-title is not mentioned except when necessary to make the title meaningful.

7. Generally every change of title has a separate entry indicating the nature of change such as "Contd as", "Amalgamated with" and "Superseded by" etc. Titles which have changed with a minor addition or deletion or changed for a short period are not entered separately.

8. Title is given within square bracket if it has been taken from sources other than the title page.

9. The word "Annual" occurring in the beginning of the title has been generally omitted except in cases where its retention was considered necessary to make the title self evident.

Arrangement

1. Entries are arranged alphabetically (word by word) ignoring articles, prepositions, conjunctions or any other connecting words.

2. Hyphenated words are generally regarded as one word.

3. Abbreviations and acronyms are arranged first in the respective alphabets.

4. 'See also' entry succeeds the main entry.

5. Sub-title is not considered in alphabetisation except in cases where the two titles are identical.

History of the Serial

Wherever the title has changed, it is entered separately under the respective sponsor. The immediate preceding and succeeding changes in a single title are connected by such terms as "Contd as", "Contd from", "Supersedes", "Superseded by", "Amalgamates", "Amalgamated with" etc. However, if the holdings of the title, preceding or succeeding are not located in any library, no entry is made under such title. In case of minor change in the title or the sponsor, the terms like "Title Varies Slightly", "Title Varies" followed by the varying title, and "Sponsor Varies Slightly", "Sponsor Varies" followed by the varying sponsor, have been given in the note section of the entry. When the title remains unchanged and its sponsor continues changing, entry has been made under the latest sponsor known and the cross reference from the earlier sponsor/sponsors has been provided.

Library Symbols

Each library is represented in this volume by a specially designed alpha-numerical symbol consisting of seven digits. Broadly speaking, the first two digits indicate the total geographical area covered by the Union Catalogue volume. The next two digits represent the particular locality in that area. The state capital i.e. Calcutta is given preference and shown by 01 and other towns by 02, 03, ... in the alphabetical sequence of their names. The last three digits are selected suitably from the name of the library. The table on pages xiii-xv provides the full name and address of the library represented by the relevant symbol.

Holdings

1. All complete volumes available in a library are given against its symbol, followed by incomplete volumes in the next line in square brackets, e.g.

Complete vols	15 (1962)-25(1972)
Incomplete vols	[12 (1959)-14(1961)]

2. Holdings have not been given against the Library symbols when a title is reported to be preserved only for the current year or for only short period.

Holdings of titles are mostly not shown with any indication of their continued availability in the library, as most of the libraries seem to acquire serial titles either on complimentary or exchange basis rather than by advanced subscription or by any standing arrangement. Exception has been made in the case of the library of Indian Statistical Institute where in some cases plus mark (+) has been given after the holdings, showing the continued availability of the title in the library because the up-to-date record of those titles was not available at the time of editing.

Sample Entry

- 738 Food and Agriculture Organisation of the United Nations, Rome.
Yearbook of Forest Statistics
Supersedes its International Yearbook of Forestry Statistics
Title Varies : Yearbook of Forest Products Statistics
WB01BCR 1961-1962
WB01ISI 1947-1953 1957-1958

Explanation

738 is the entry number. 'Food and Agriculture Organisation of the United Nations' is the sponsor 'Yearbook of Forest Products' is the title, which supersedes 'International Yearbook of Forestry Statistics' issued by the same sponsor. Variation in the title is represented by note 'Title Varies : Yearbook of Forest Products Statistics'. Complete volumes of the title are available in Bidhan Chander Roy Memorial Library and Indian Statistical Institute Library represented by the symbol WB01BCR and WB01ISI respectively.
